Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds	State Fiscal Recovery Fund	California will receive over $43 billion in combined recovery funds from the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, including $27 billion in state fiscal recovery funds. The Act specifies that funds may be used to respond to the COVID-19 public health emergency or its negative economic impacts, replace lost revenue, and to make necessary investments in water, sewer, or broadband infrastructure. The 2021 Budget Act reflects the following allocations: (1) $1.8 billion to address public health impacts, (2) $12.2 billion to address negative economic impacts, (3) $9.2 billion to replace lost state revenue, and (4) $3.8 billion for broadband.	27,017,017	-	-	-
Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds	Local Fiscal Recovery Fund for Small Cities	Of the $43 billion in combined recovery funds from the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, 291 small cities with populations below 50,000 in California will receive $1.2 billion. The state is required to allocate these funds on behalf of the U.S. Treasury. Funds are received and payments are made in two tranches based on each entity's share of the population.	1,218,261	-	609,131	609,131
